 1. Review National website instructions before starting the application process <https://summit.scouting.org>
 2. Review the National requirements for attending
 3. Review National medical/health information and requirements
 4. Apply online, print a copy of the National Application package/forms
 5. Download the Monmouth Council Troop/Crew Adult Leader Application from <http://jambo.monmouthbsa.com/2013/>
 6. Submit all forms to Monmouth Council.
 7. No application fee is required for adults and no payments are required until you are selected as a Jamboree Leader.

Adult Leader Selection Process

- Leaders will be selected based on their qualifications.
- The date the form is submitted to council does not impact the selection process.
- Selections will be made before April 30, 2012.

If you are put on a waiting list you have three choices:

- You can apply for a Staff Position through the National Jamboree site. There are over 9,000 staff positions, but there are no guarantees of getting a position on staff.
- You can wait for a Council opening, and if one becomes available you can resign your National staff position in favor of the council leader spot.
- Or, you can just stay on the local wait list, for a council opening, if you do not want to apply for a staff position.

National Jamboree Staff Positions

- There is no local council involvement basically in this process.
- Please let Chris Quakenbush know if you are accepted as a National Staff member.
